

Guide – The ORGA Village activity

For this activity there are a number of cards and each one corresponds to a quiz question for the user.

The script for one of the cards can be found in 'card.txt'.

The script for the help button located next to the activity can be found in 'help-button.txt'. When the user clicks this button, it sends a message to the presentation panel (script can be found in presentation-panel.txt next to it) and it will go to the specific child related to the current question/card.
